

Marcos Licea

Litigation Support Analyst

mlicea@bdlaw.com

+1.617.419.2342

155 Federal Street, Suite 1600, Boston, MA, 02110-1716

Marcos is an experience litigation and eDiscovery professional responsible for the day-to-day litigation support needs of assigned cases and projects.

Some of Marcos' duties include:

- Providing training and guidance to attorneys and staff in the area of litigation support technology.
- Responsible for managing all eDiscovery document review cases within Casepoint and litigation support workflows.
- Taking lead on complex data loading, large exports, productions, database creations/archives, and technical issues.
- Building litigation support and eDiscovery capabilities within the firm to increase support operations.
- Assisting attorneys with complex eDiscovery queries.
- Working with attorneys and paralegals on the use of technology to improve efficiency.

Education

- Northeastern University (B.A.Sc., 2008)
 - Political Science and Government; Economics
- Boston University (Paralegal Certificate, 2008)